The Story of the Magic Cloak

L. Frank Baum

READ FOR LIBRIVOX BY PHIL CHENEVERT

L. Frank Baum
L. Frank Baum, of the Wizard of Oz fame, wrote this delightful book and considered it his best of all that he wrote. It tells the story of fairies who weave a magic cloak one day that has the ability to grant its owner one wish. That's all, just one. After this they must then give it away to another person who will then have a wish of their own. The travels of this magic cloak through its owners and their adventures and misadventures makes this book truly magical and fun to read. - Summary by phil chenevert
